

Home Network Installation

Find out what it takes to connect your home or office before you even make a purchase.

An Agent will:

- Visit your home to survey your networking needs
- Explain the benefits of networking your existing hardware
- Estimate additional services or hardware required

Work securely from anywhere in your network, while sharing the Internet and files between computers and printers. We'll set up your wired/wireless router to work with your multi-computer network. Router sold separately.