

Automated Data Backup

Set your computer to automatically backup your important data.

An Agent will:

- Connect external hard drives to your computer (hard drive not included)
- Install software and drivers
- Verify that the drivers are functional
- Set up operating system software for network system access and data
- Configure your computer to routinely back up your files